

Sensory Products

The products listed below are only a small example of sensory products available to consumers. You should use this as a guide only. Please seek professional advice from an Occupational Therapist or other professional for what is appropriate your individual needs.

Once you know what type of sensory item you are looking for, a google search will give you a variety of places to purchase either in street stores or online.

If you have a suggestion to add to this list, please email through website details for inclusion.
